MONDAY EVENING. MAR. 10 1902.

You Taste With Your Throat. The idea that the sense of taste has any connection with the throat appears peculiar at first thought. We have been possessed with the notion that the sense of taste lies in the tongue and the palate. We all speak of a fine palate, and many persons express aston ishment that they can enjoy a delicacy as well after baying had a plate fitted to their mouths by a dentist as they could before they paid a visit to that clever gentleman.

The sense of taste is not confined to the tongue and the palate, but is more widely distributed. You taste also with the epiglottis, that little valve at the base of the tongue, and the larynx, to which the epiglottis acts as an assistant, also takes part in the process. Concerning the palate, it is noteworthy that we taste with the soft part, which is at the back of the mouth, but not with the hard or front palate. That explains the mystery of the dental plate. The tonsils do nothing for the sense of taste, nor does the uvula.

What the Indian Eats.

The typical Indian home of today consists of a mud chinked log shack, a tepee or two, usually a hay barn and etimes a corral. As a general rule, they live in squalor, yet many Indians possess nice homes and enjoy well cooked meals from neatly set tables. But the ordinary Indian eats meats largely of questionable character. He delights in dog stew and other savory dishes. He has excellent teeth and an envied digestion.

Indian children are shy and close mouthed to strangers, but the squaws are often loquacious. Their doors are always open to visitors. The red man has an aversion for soldiers and frankly tells them that he does not fear them. Although he possesses an excellent constitution, disease finds in the Indian an easy victim.—Detroit Free

"Minne Giggle" Falls.

"Some years ago I visited an old friend of mine in Minneapolis," said a well known Milwaukee railroad man, "and he spent considerable time taking me about to show me the many inter esting places in that interesting city. One day he took me out to see the fa-mous Minnchaha falls, and after I had feasted my eyes on this beautiful work of nature he invited me to accompany him down the gulch through which the little stream flows-at least half a mile and there called my attention to a little cascade that is an exact minia ture of Minnehaha falls. "'What do you call this cascade?"

asked of my friend. "'We call this Minne Giggle.' "-Mil-wankee Sentinel.

The Artist and the Critic.

Sidney Cooper, the English artist, happening one day to visit the Royal academy, where some of his works were on exhibition, while a couple of critics were examining the pictures, strolled up to where they were standing. At that moment the younger of the two critics exclaimed, "Any machine could turn out sheep like that!"

Mr. Cooper put his hand in his pocket, produced his card and, handing it to the newspaper man, said, with gravity, "If you will kindly send that machine to this address when completed, I'll send a check for $1,000 to the institute for decayed journalists!"

Soup by the Pound.

In China liquids are sold by weight and grain by measure. John buys sour by the pound and cloth by the foot. A Chinaman never puts his name outside his shop, but paints instead a motto or a list of his goods on his vertical signboard. Some reassuring remark is fre-quently added, such as "One word hall," "A child two feet high would not be cheated." Every single article has to be bargained for, and it is usual for the customer to take his own measure and scales with him.

The Reat of Australia.

Australia is the hottest country on record. I have ridden for miles astride the equator, but I have never found heat to compare with this. Out in the country in the dry times there appears to be little more than a sheet of brown paper between you and the lower regions, and the people facetiously say that they have to feed their bens on cracked ice to keep them from laying boiled eggs.—Sydney Telegraph.

Young Husband-Don't you think darling, that it would spoil the curtains if I should smoke? Young Wife-You are the best and most considerate husband that ever lived, dear. Of course it would. Young Husband-Well, then, you'd better take them down.

Censure and Criticism.

Censure and criticism never hurt any-body. If false, they cannot hurt you unless you are wanting in manly character, and if true they show a man his weak points and forewarn him against failure and trouble.-Gladstone.

ST. NICHOLAS

FOR YOUNG FOLKS.

Are there any boys or girls in your home? If so, do you want them to grow up familiar with the best literature and art, and with all their best impulses quickened? There is a way to do it, at an expense of less than one cent a day—a way to have in your home the greatest educational influence of our time.

"St. Nicholas for Young, Folks" is the medium—a magazine absolutely unequalled in the literature of the world. It is recommended by educators everywhere—it contains only the very test and most helpful and entertaining literature, and it is illustrated by the greatest of American illustrators,

IN 1902 some new features are to be introduced into this famous periodical—one is the printing of long stories complete in a single number—no serials. A splendid group of stories by the best living writers for young folks has been gathered for this purpose.

"NATURE STUDY" is now a great feature of St. Nicholas. The peung readers ask questions and they are answered in a department called "Nature and Science." Private schools take the magazine for this alone. The "St. Nicholas League" is an organization of St. Nicholas readers wherein prizes are offered for the best pictures, stories, poems, etc.

November and December numbers free to new subscribers who begin with January. (November begins the volume.)

A beautiful pamphlet (in colors) describing 8t. Nicholas sent free to any address. Get it for the boys and girls. Address.
